Tribute from Brian Pollock

Relation: brother from another mother

From Tokyo to Berlin, and all points in between, my life was enriched by the presence of Dave "Barney" Bjarnason", sitting behind and to my right, helping drive the bus for over ten years with the "Eh! Team". We spent countless hours and thousands of miles travelling together in assorted 'beaters', sharing hotel rooms and hostels in Canada, Europe, and Japan, discussing philosophy, spirituality, and innumerable other topics (all of them fascinating to me). Ironically, while being musicians, we never had a vehicle with anything close to an adequate sound system, so we had to fill the time somehow. I have never had any conversations more engaging than the ones we shared. You will be sorely missed Brother. Good-bye for now, we'll get together again on the flip side. Today's gratitude shot brought to you by lifelong love and respect.

It's not the same now. You were in my life from the very beginning. I'll miss you dear brother. Yet I know you're where you want to be. Flying free! A part of your soul was never of this world, only in it! I cherish all the memory of you....

See you on the other side!

I knew Dave from the meditation centre back in the day. He was a bright light, with a warm and engaging personality. We also shared a connection in that we both had spent time as kids at Crystal Lake, Saskatchewan.

Onward and upward dear Dave.
