Tribute from Sharon Leveque

Relation: friend from Chapman Camp

Dear Jim -- Donelda and I had so much fun growing up....from biking as fast as we could, to playing hockey together and laughing lots. We will be thinking of you so much on Monday and cherishing the memories we shared. Warm and special thoughts and our deepest sympathy to you and the family.
Love and hugs, Sharon (another Chapman Camp kid) and Eugene Leveque

Tribute from Eileen & Richard Leinweber

Relation: School Friend

Our sincere sympathy at your loss. May knowing that others are thinking of you during your loss will help you during this time. Memories of Donelda will always remain with us. May your many happy memories sustain you now and through the time ahead.

Tribute from Bob Carter

Relation: Went to school together

Jim, old friend, how life slips by. I know you will miss Donelda, your life time partner as I would Irene.
Cherish the memories and the arrows in your case that are left for you to enjoy. Take care of yourself and you are always welcome in our home. Bob & Irene

Tribute from Catriona Macdonald (Scotland)

Relation: Jimmy's Cousin

I'm so happy to have met Donelda on my trip to Kimberley. Memories are wonderful. My thoughts with you all. Catriona

Tribute from Al and Kirsten Patterson

Relation: Kimberley Friend

Our sympathies go out to you and your family Jim. Donelda is one of those Kimberley "originals" from our era and she will be missed by an awful lot of people. We hope today's service went well Jim and that you and your family can begin the difficult task of letting her go while still clutching onto all those great, positive memories.

Tribute from Johnny Bell

Relation: relative

Jimmy, please accept my sincere sympathies now Donelda has finally found peace. May you and the family find your way in the comfort of one another as you proceed ahead. Take very good care each and all of you.

Tribute from Ray Marusyk

Relation: Relationship - How did you know the deceased?

Jim and family,

It's been many years since we've met. First, Happy Valley days with you and then Blarhmont School with Donelda. Donelda was a good friend to all.

Ray Marusyk

Tribute from Bob and Michelle McCue

Relation: old neighbors

Bob and I were so sorry to hear this. We treasure our years in Chapman Camp, living across the street from Jim and Donelda, and Donelda's mom, Edith. Wonderful neighborhood because of these people.
