October 28, 1954 - October 20, 2015

In the early morning hours of Tuesday, October 20, 2015, Douglas Joseph Sebolsky passed away at the East Kootenay Regional Hospital at the age of 60 years. Doug was born in New Westminster, BC on October 28, 1954, son of Matthew and Edith Sebolsky.

Doug loved life and the many good times he had living it!! He truly enjoyed working at the mill and did so for 40 plus years. He missed his job a lot when he could no longer work because of his health. Doug was a hopeless romantic - he loved love story movies as well as westerns and especially Hawaii 5-O. Rita and Doug loved taking short road trips but their most favorite place of all was to visit Lethbridge. Many special memories were made there. Doug loved renovating the homes that he has lived in. He loved hamburgers but his most special love was for his two cats - Summer Dawn and Bo-Cephas.

Doug leaves to mourn his passing his beloved wife, Rita; his son Christopher(Tiffany) and his daughter, Morgan. Also left is his beloved grandson, Walker Douglas Sebolsky as well as his sister and brothers; Audrey, Morris (Linda) and Larry (Terri). Doug also leaves many aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, cousins, co-workers and many, many good friends. Doug was predeceased by his parents Matt and Edith Sebolsky and his sister Myra.
