

REMEMBERING
Margaret Rose Daignault

May 8, 1941 - March 20, 2024

It is with great sadness the family of Margaret Rose Daignault (nee Cervo) announce her passing on Wednesday, March 20, 2024 with family members by her side at the East Kootenay Regional Hospital.

Margaret was born in Coleman, Alberta on May 8, 1941 and then made Cranbrook her home, raising her family and joyfully sitting as matriarch of her entire extended family. This was the most important part of her life as she tirelessly led and cared for her family.

Margaret is survived by her cherished children; Louie, Shelley and Tracey (Jim); as well as her grandchildren; Wade (Melanie), Dave, Darren (Jamie), Chantelle (Craig), Haley and Alysha. Great grandchildren; Sierra, Wyatt, Cash, Curtis, Kendal, Deklan and Daxton. Also left to mourn are her brother, Roy (Diane) and sisters Florence (Ellwood) and Debbie (Denis) as well as numerous nieces and nephews and many friends. Margaret was predeceased by her daughter-in-law Diane, her parents Mario and Florence Cervo, and her sisters Theresa and Shirley.

As per her wish, Margaret has been cremated. A celebration of life will be conducted on May 18, 2024 in Westlawn Cemetery at 1:00 pm in Cranbrook. Margaret's remains will be laid to rest alongside her father on this day. Everyone is welcome to attend the celebration and social gathering to follow at Margaret's home, 319 - 11th St. S., Cranbrook.

The family wishes to extend a sincere thank you to the doctors, nurses and staff at the hospital who helped Margaret in her last days. Your kindness did not go unnoticed.

