Tribute from Debbie Munro

Relation: Friend

So sorry to hear of Robin's passing. Rest assured he is at peace now. I know that Ron and Robin are talking about the good old fishing days and working days. Know that I am thing about you.

Tribute from Larry and Margaret Gwaltney

Relation: Friend

Robin was a pleasure to know. I enjoyed the rides that I had in his company. We will all miss him. My wife and I wish to offer our condolences to Lynn and families/

Tribute from Bruce Moore

Relation: Friend

There was a smile on his face every time we met and although we no longer have the opportunity to greet each other, he will always be in my thoughts. Rest well friend.

Tribute from Kathleen Milhousen

Our sincere condolences to Robins family. Our best memories of bowling at the Elks club were when we came up against Robins team. He was one of the good guys and will be sadly missed

Tribute from Gordon and Cheryl Olsen

Relation: friends

Robin's big smile and good humored nature will be sadly missed. It was always a pleasure to meet up with him. Our sincere condolences to Lynn and the family. Gordon and Cheryl Olsen

Tribute from Darrin Alberton

Relation: Quading friend

My condolences to the Ballard family.

Tribute from Paula Bedford

My sincere condolences to Lynn & her wonderful family. I am one of the lucky ones who has Robin's sketches/instructions on how to ice fish. Always makes me smile when I read them. RIP my friend

Tribute from Darryl Hill

Relation: Cousin

Lynn and family. So sorry to read about your loss. Robin was a great guy and I remember fondly all the time we spent together in Wardner with him uncle Lawrence aunt Edna and Joanne in the 1940,s/1950,s. Rest in peace Robin

Tribute from Irena Jarco

Relation: Friend of his wife

Dearest Lynn and family. You have been in my thoughts so much lately. I wish you all heartfelt condolences. If at any time you are up for a visit or even a walk, I am here for you.

Tribute from Rose Stevens

Relation: friend

Dear Lynn & Family

It is with sadness we read of Robin's death on June 02. Although we had not known Robin for long, we found him to be very hospitable and a pleasure to chat with. We met Robin at Live & Learn through numerous sessions in 2018. He was very kind to Fred, who is a proud owner of one his wee birch bark canoes. May his Soul Rest in Peace.

In Sympathy

Fred and Rose Stevens

Tribute from Connie & Len Stang
