Tribute from Susan Lloyd

Relation: My friend's mum

Darci, thinking of you and your family as you celebrate your Mum and her memory. I was happy to have met your Mum and spend a brief time with her to at least experience a little of all you had told me about her. Hugs to Joel and Beth.

Tribute from Audrey Mayne

Relation: acquaintance

This news made me so sad. I truly enjoyed interacting with Shirley at the Hospital Auxiliary. She always had a quick comeback, a great attitude towards life, and a mischievous twinkle in her eye. It was a pleasure to have had her cross my path. Rest in peace.

Relation: Relationship - How did you know the deceased?

I met Shirlea years ago when I was a homemaker for her Mom (Mrs. Armstrong) Shirlea was a very caring and compassionate daughter to her Mom. I loved her laugh, and the twinkle in her eyes. May she Rest in Peace! I'm very sorry for your loss.

Relation: Relationship - How did you know the deceased?

My heart and prayers are with you all. So sorry for your loss. In my minds eye from my earliest memories until recent I see your mother's infectious smile and twinkle in her eye. And to me she always looked the same. She never seemed to get older and she always had a smile and twinkle. Mrs. Hamilton will be greatly missed. I pray for peace and comfort and that you are surrounded by love.

Tribute from Anne Edwards

Relation: Friend

I met Shirlea soon after we moved to Cranbrook. She was a good friend: thoughtful, generous and fun to be with. Although I haven't seen her for some time, I remember her fondly and send sincere sympathy to her family. Sincerely, Anne Edwards.

Tribute from Davene (Herman) Bird

Relation: I was Child-minder for Shirley's daughters in 1950's

Dear Leigh, Leslie, Beth, Jill, Darci,

Your Dad and Mom raised you so well, and you were a joy to look after, when I was a teen-ager in Kimberley. Their excellent parenting skills gave you a wonderful foundation and me a splendid example. I loved you and Shirley dearly, and would visit Shirley The Salesperson, occasionally, in later years. She never changed from the modest, well-balanced, REAL person of my youth. I only read of her passing today, March 6, p.m., and would've driven to Cranbrook from Castlegar (where I have lived for decades) to attend her funeral had I known earlier.

Your obituary was wonderfully written...Shirley IS so respected!

God bless you, Dear Daughters, with condolences from

Davene(Herman)Bird, who, with her sister, Bev (Herman)Turner, share in sympathy your loss.

Tribute from Marlene Beugeling
